LIVING IN THE COUNTRY
The thing of living in the country is great.

First, all you need is a place to live in; and then a horse and a cow and some pigs and chickens.

Then, all you need is some feed for the horse and cow and pigs and chickens, and a strong man.

But that's next. A strong man to feed them.

Then you need to read all the farmer books and government bulletins and learn just how things should be done.

Then you need the nerve to go and tell your man how to do everything, and the courage to warn him do it another way and ignore his instructions. After that, all you need is the gall to pretend that you did it, when a bean comes out the way it was intended.

But with all that, it's the life; and a fellow could stand it if it wasn't for the mortgages and paying the man and buying the feed.

A judge on a certain circuit was accustomed to doze during the speeches of counsel. On one occasion counsel was addressing him on the subject of certain town commissioners' rights to obtain water from a river, water being scarce at the time.

"During his speech he made use of the words, 'But, my lord, we must have water—we must have water.'"

Whereupon the judge woke up, exclaiming, "Well, just a little drop, I like it fairly strong."

"My face is my fortune," she said. "I wish to be repaid," he said. "The richest people aren't always the happiest."

Alberta Liquor Act

Canadian Press
Calgary, Oct. 7.—Alberta will have an opportunity of expressing an opinion in a new way on the liquor act within the next two months. . . . It was stated Saturday, from the very best authority, that the Alberta Hotelmen's Association has prepared a new act, now in the hands of the printer, entitled "The Alberta Temperance Act" under which it will be legal to sell real strength beer in hotel dining rooms, clubs and on trains. The Hotelmen's Association is taking steps to organize a petition under the Direct Legislation Act which means that the government has the option, when presented with a petition carrying the legal requirement of names, of passing the bill as it is presented to them or giving a plebiscite within 90 days of the close of the next session.

The new act, the first proofs of which were in the hands of hotelmen on Saturday, provides for nothing but the sale of beer, under conditions vision for the sale of whiskey and does not interfere with the present liquor act, under which liquor is sold by the government vendor to druggists who in turn retail it on registered physicians' prescriptions.

Hotelmen who are behind the move claim that their act will provide a revenue of $10,000 a year for the Alberta government, this being rais-

How The Fordney Tariff Affects Western Canada

Western Canadian producers will be interested in some of the provisions of the new United States Tariff. This high wall tariff is certainly exclusive, and to a large extent will affect Western Canada trade in a detrimental way. A glance through the tariff leaves the impression that it was framed with the idea of shutting out Western Canada products. The following quotations will show the position under the old tariff and the increases under the new one.—

Dairy Products—Butter, oleomargarine etc. increased from 2 1/2 to 8 per pound; cheese from 20 per cent ad val. to 5c per pound; milk free under old tariff, now 2 1/2c per gallon; Cream free to 20c per gal.; milk condensed or evaporated, free, to 1c per pound.

Edgerton Echoes

Mrs. Davidson, of Winter, Sask. is visiting at the Maddock's home.

We learn that Frank Hoehn has sold his farm at Doley to J. W. Connely and is to move to Washington where he intends to settle.

J. Connely, our local blacksmith for the past four years, has bought the Hoehn farm and intends to move on to it on the 1st of the month. Mr. Connely feels that he has spent long enough at this most strenuous occupation of blacksmithing and is to try his hand at a less strenuous one. We are glad to hear of his new venture.

Bob Leggett is taking over Mr. Connely's shop and house and is to move in as soon as he can. Bob is a general favorite and we are pleased to welcome him and hope he will enjoy the same success as Mr. Connely.

Mrs. W. T. Hays was taken to the hospital at Edmonton last week. Mr. Hays also accompanied her to Edmonton.

Little June Spornitz was on the sick list last week but she is now fully recovered.

We are sorry to report the death of John Edwards, the little son of George Hallett, at the early age of 18 months. He had been sick for a considerable time and all the skill of the local physicians was unavailing.

A number of Chauvin and Wainwright Oddfellows accompanied with their brethren of that ilk at Edgerton last Thursday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent but the success of the whole thing was marred by the inability of the Wainwright postmaster to pilot his big boat back home in just such matters as this, because Slim & Dick were requisitioned and we believe that Dick whisked the whole back home to Wainwright with Charlie Brannegren's limousine. You notice we said "whisked" which is the correct word. Ask Mac, he will be able to tell.

Through the efforts and advance agency of Doc Harrington, Unity Orchestra journeyed to our burg last Friday to dispense some of the latest jazz creations to the amateurs of the town. The result was a complete success. Crowds came from everywhere but we must concede the palm to Fabian for we saw an honest-to-goodness White-truck load of enthusiastic dancers from this, the latest old metropolis. That's the way to come.

The Ladies Aid are putting on a chicken supper in the Jorgensen Flock on Saturday 28th inst. and as one is assured of a glorious gorge at the low price of four bits, we hope to see those good ladies working overtime in waiting on the crowds. Just in order to prepare your imagination young roster, roasted to a nice golden brown, and then the trimmings—um yum-yum, our teeth are starting to water right now—Well then, you are all these dainty viands that are seen on the picture posters announcing all the rest of the dainties that those good "biscuit shooters" are so sure to serve to us, those pictures are not half as good as what we are to get at this supper. We were there and helped eat at their last supper and there isn't printer's ink and type and adjectives enough to do it justice. If you stay away you will be sorry.

Under the auspices of the Girls' Club a big box social and dance will be held on the evening of the 17th of October. This will be quite an event and they are deserving of good support. The Unity Orchestra will supply the dance music and we would advise all the eligible bachelors of the country to come well fortified with "kiss" in order to eliminate any possible chance of losing a golden opportunity.

Now gentle readers, be it from us to offer any criticism about the doings of our teachers, but you know Bonnie is a single boy and then his having to write, etc. etc. in connection with the above, my, it must

Observations Made On Our Trip To British Columbia

Vernon, our destination, we found to be a charming town of 4000 population. It had broad streets lined with good buildings and beautiful trees. Centring round the depot were many large fruit packing warehouses. On the main street were a number of up to date stores, including a branch of the Hudson's Bay Co. There were several good hotels providing excellent accommodation. On the dining room tables were set large dishes of assorted fruits as a supplement to the menu—you may judge how we appreciated this item, and did our duty.

Whilst the press convention was in session the ladies of Vernon acted as hostesses to the ladies of the visiting parties, and entertained them lavishly. Each member of our party, ladies and gentlemen alike had been furnished with a white satin badge, on which was printed the convention title with a rosy apple for an emblem; in addition to which the name of the wearer was inscribed. These badges formed an open "sesame" to all kinds of hospitalities. The Vernon folks visited each other in their desire to provide enjoyment and interest to us as visitors. At the conclusion of the convention Friday afternoon, a fleet of cars awaited to take us for drives over the district, and great care was given to explaining everything we saw and also to answering our many questions. We were shown the famous Coldstream ranch—one of the largest pioneer fruit farms of this district, its hundreds of acres now being subdivided into smaller ones.

Irrigation is general throughout the Okanagan district of which Vernon stands the head. Water is carried for long distances through long lines. These feed smaller frames to supply individual farms. Each land owner takes his turn according to schedule and the water is allowed to flow on until the land is saturated. Later at the time the land is drying out another good soaking is given. This is found to be more advantageous than a larger number of lesser waterings. These irrigation schemes are chiefly municipal ventures. The soil is very light in color, almost white. It's texture is as fine as flour. Without irrigation it is barren. With irrigation it is remarkably prolific.

To pass through mile after mile of heavily laden orchards was indeed a feast to the eyes. We confess we had a great desire to become just ordinary thieves. In fact when our driver had a little time trouble we improved the occasion by picking the best apples we could find—try, boy. Didn't they didn't they taste a whole lot better than from the box. Besides apples, there were apricots, peaches, plums, pears galore. Loganberries and the small fruits aplenty—as far along the valleys as the eye could see—you do not need to mention the garden of Eden to us, now we've seen this bit of God's earth.

Along the road came an endless procession of racks, wagons, motor boats with trailers bringing in the boxes of fruit. And say they have some good roads well-packed with crushed rocks which make durable and level highways.

Our drive terminated at the beach of the Long Lake, where the Country Club have beautiful grounds at the water's edge. We found a splendid boat house and pavilion with the accommodation and dancing. On the lawn stood a table bearing a load of all descriptions of fruit from cantaloupes downward, with an invitation from the fruit growers of the district to partake—we did. Looking around we noticed some grading, and were informed that this was part of the work for the Canadian National line from Kamloops on which work has for the present been stopped. We were entertained to supper alfresco fashion on the lawn, after which we had a free and easy sing-song at which our good friend Huntingford of Wainwright naturally became leader. Our party then divided, some to the dance and others to the theatre.

Mindful of the fact that some of our readers would desire to know more about this land and its opportunities we, as far as we were able, sought to learn details. We found as we already said, that one irrigated land is worthless, and that other land is priced from $250 to $1500 per acre. It cost the grower from eighty cents to one dollar and ten cents to grow and to pack a box of fruit and get it to the warehouse. The fruit buying companies, of which there are many, will advance to the grower up to sixty per cent of his estimated crop to help him through the growing season. Thus if the final price for fruit is low the grower after delivering his crop may find he owes the company money. A grower who has his fruit in the orchard for a long time and the buyer pick and pack the fruit, or the company will buy the fruit outright on delivery to the warehouse; or, the grower may use the company as an agent.

These fruit companies will take big profits—they must—one year they will make big money, another year they lose heavily. In fact, we reached the conclusion that the whole game—for grower and dealer alike—is one big gamble. Wheat, we all know, is a gamble, but in our estimation fruit is worse yet.

There are some places in British Columbia that seem more than favorably with our own prairie life. We would mention the nearness of home to home owing to the holdings being of ten, twenty or thirty acres for the most part. In some districts the rural home enjoys a water system and the electric light. The standard of living is perhaps higher than our own, and the country homes are of a better standard than ours. Yet with it all, as we were both said, as my wife aptly put it, that "I would not come here to live unless I had lots of money, and then I would not stay."

where" (meaning England, of which she was thinking; for the familiar old flowers, forget-me, hollyhock, and others together with the ferns and hops had deeply stirred memories of old days). Pardon me, reader, one can't always be strictly logical when setting forth impressions.
